There was a time when I used to think that I have to not be romantic or flirty with my partner. Because I thought it's all films and never reality.

I had an argument with Sam about it reality.

I had an argument with Sam about it

She said look eventually life is gonna take toll on you

But till that time flirt and be romantic with your partner as much as you can.

That's resonated with me a lot.

So, I know you might think I am chichora.

But let's just go with the flow.

Life is gonna become serious anyways.

Flirt romance partner se nhi krenge tou kisse krenge mian jee

Plus every woman expects it

Haha, I grew up with boys

Mom and dad aren't really into Romantic gestures

Actually when women don't have
